

LIFE-GATE STUDENT PLACEMENT

Life-Gate strives to play an integral role in the development and training of students involved in service provision for individuals and families with personal or relational problems such as: addictions, suicidal tendencies, domestic violence, marriage difficulties, abuse, depression, anger, low self-worth as well as emotional and spiritual problems.

What you can expect from your placement with Life-Gate Inc:

- Experienced supervision and management in a supportive learning environment.
- Regular and constructive feedback and debriefing on your learning events and performance.
- Strategic opportunities to enhance personal and professional development based upon your personalised learning goals.
- Participation in all aspects of the Life-Gate organisation including administration, program delivery,
- Community Pantry and street outreach services.
- Observation of counselling sessions (when available*) and observation and supported access with clients through street outreach services.
- Work within a Christian-based counselling framework.

What we at Life-Gate expect from placement students:

- A respectful and professional attitude toward beneficiaries and volunteer staff.
- Punctuality and reliability.
- Neat and tidy appearance.
- Good interpersonal and communication skills.
- Proficient computer skills and a competent professional knowledge.
- Contribution toward the day-to-day running of Life-Gate.
- An oath of confidentiality to protect client information. We also expect students to adhere to the professional ethics established by, and for, the professional sector relevant to the student.
- Respect for Life-Gate's Christian ethos.

Our organisation is a Christian Public Benevolent Institution that provides counselling based on biblical principles. While we do not require Placement Applicants to share our beliefs, we expect all students to demonstrate respect and refrain from engaging in disputes or communicating with clients in a manner that contradicts the counsel provided by our counsellors.
